Weekly Social Emotional Focus: Being Respectful

This week, we will be talking to students about the importance of being respectful. We will learn how to be good listeners both at school and at home, helping one another, and taking time to understand how others feel. The mini lessons in classrooms focus on using friendly words, saying please, and thank you.

Important
FORMS

Student insurance information was sent home last week. Please check your child's take home folder in their binder if you did not receive it!

Additionally, Parent-Student-Teacher Compact was sent home as well. Please carefully read this important document with your child, and return to school by Friday of this week! A copy of the compact is also available in your child's agenda.

Monday, August 26

- Gifted classes start today

- Be on the lookout for the following information in your student's take home folder:
 - Student Code of Conduct - please complete and return the Notice of Receipt (page 53) by Friday, August 30
 - Chromebook insurance form - if you choose to purchase optional insurance for your child's Chromebook at school, please return this form and a check for $20 by Friday, August 30
 - Healthy Schools newsletter with flu vaccine information

Parents Informational Meeting: Safety First!
5-6 PM in our Media Center

Parents are invited to come and meet with Dr. Robinson and Mrs. Shirley and learn more about our school's non-academic focus areas - safety and mental health support. We will talk about the new safety initiatives as well as how we use our Social Emotional curriculum Second Step to promote culture of connectedness. We have promised to give 5 Tiger Paws to students who attend!

Wednesday, August 28

We are excited to see our district partner with DeliverEd to assist us in strategic planning. We need two families to represent NES at the initial planning meeting at the district office from 9 AM-10AM. If you can get away from work and would like to represent us, please e-mail Dr. Robinson this weekend at robinsont@okee.k12.fl.us. Thank you for taking an active role in education!

Friday, August 30
