Other Important Information

- Book Fair is open this week! Students can visit the Book Fair from 7:45 - 8:05 with the parent, and with a pass from class throughout the day. Family Night at the Book Fair is on Thursday November 14 5-7 PM.
- Food for Families Food Drive continues. This is the last week for students to “can” the principal’s office and fill it with as many cans of non-perishable food items as they can. The class with most canned food donations by Friday, November 15 will be awarded.
- Students in grades 3-5 should be reading the Sunshine State Young Reader Books. The first students to complete all five books for their grade level will have an opportunity to represent NES at the county Battle of the Books competition.
- Tutorials on Florida Standards are available at <http://www.floridastudents.org/>. Check out these great resources for extended learning at all grade levels!
- Lunch and breakfast are free to all of our students!

We encourage all students to take advantage of this wonderful program and start their day with a healthy breakfast!

- A copy of our School Improvement Plan in Spanish is available in our front office Parent Information Binder.

- Reports concerning unsafe, potentially harmful, dangerous, violent, or criminal activities, or the threat of these activities, can be made to appropriate public safety agencies and school officials using the following link: <https://getfortifyfl.com/Tip.html>

Let's make this a great week!

Go Tigers!
