People think it is so easy to be a dog.
They scratch my head and say, “Elvis, your life is so easy.”

Boy, are they wrong. Being a dog is hard work! I don’t like what I do every day. I just can’t do it anymore!

I wake up on a cold, hard floor every day.
I eat dry dog food for breakfast. Yuck!

Then I have to drag myself out the door to chase the mailman. I do NOT want to chase the mailman! He is a nice guy. He scratches my belly. He feeds me bananas.

What do I do next? I hide in a closet. I am trying to cough up a hairball.

Then I hear someone call, “Elvis! Come!” And of course I come running. I see that someone has dropped some meatloaf. They want me to eat it off the floor. Gross!

Finally, I talk to my best friend, Maxwell.
“What should I do?” I ask him. Maxwell lives under the dishwasher. He is a mouse. He is also a painter! Today he is painting a banana.

I say, “I don’t want to be a dog anymore,
Maxwell. I have no time alone. The food stinks.
And people throw balls at me!”

“I know what you mean,” Maxwell says as he paints.

“You have to do what makes you happy. That is why I paint beautiful fruit. It makes me happy. Other mice look for crumbs all day. That makes them happy. You have to do what makes YOU happy, Elvis.”

I think about this. Then I say, “Well, I like licking my paws! I like winding around people’s feet so that they trip. And I love drinking milk.”

“I’ve got it!” Maxwell cries. “It sounds like you have spent too much time being a dog. Why don’t you try being ... a cat!”

What is Elvis doing?

“Is he sick?” Penny Picklebottom asks.

“He has been sleeping standing up. Why would he do that?”

“And why would he gallop around the yard?” Mr. Picklebottom asks.

“And why steal my best blanket? Is he cold?” Mrs. Picklebottom adds.

Now everyone is quiet. They watch the dog. Elvis prances through the yard. He has thrown a blanket over his back.

Elvis shakes his head every few steps. His hair blows in the wind. Then he jumps over a low tree branch.

“What does that dog think he is doing?”

Mrs. Picklebottom wonders. “Last week, he tried to sit in my lap like a cat. But now what? Dogs don’t prance. They don’t wear blankets.”

Mrs. Picklebottom is right. Elvis is acting strange. He is not acting like a dog at all!

Elvis runs inside. He dashes under Penny's legs. Then he stands up. Penny is sitting on Elvis's back!

Penny's eyes open wide. "He's a horse!" Then she yells, "Giddy-up, Elvis! Let's ride!" And into the garden they go.
