Weekly Memo for Parents
September 23, 2019

We have many initiatives taking place this week! All public schools take part in Celebrate Freedom Week activities. Students will have an opportunity to learn more about important individuals, events, and documents from our history throughout the week in their Social Studies classes.

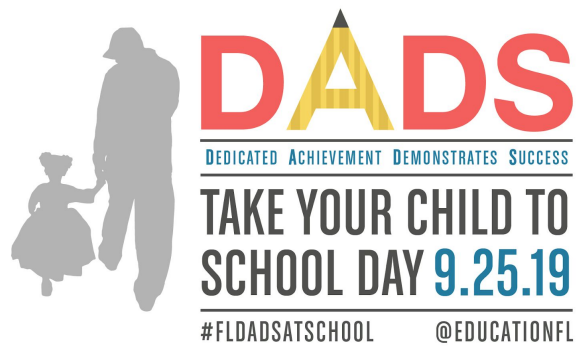

NES also participates in Start With Hello Week. The activities that we have planned are meant to reach and empower students to reduce social isolation and build connected and inclusive communities at NES and beyond. Please join us in the Start with Hello activities throughout the week!

Everyone starts the day with Hello. Students will wear name tags to encourage everyone to say hello to each other and use their names.
